Verse 1

Where do I turn to
Where do I run
When my mind says it's over
You say it's not done

In all of the chaos
When the war has begun
When the world says it's over
I know you're not done

Chorus

You're the God of the future
The God of the past
The God of the moment
Wherever I'm at

Your victory is final
It can't be undone
The story's been written
The battle's been won

You're the God of today (Oh)
You're the God here to stay (Oh)
You're the God of today (Oh)
You're the God here to stay (Oh)

Verse 2

So where do we turn to
Where do we run
When the world says it's over
We know you're not done

Bridge

When sickness takes control
He remains, He remains

When death is all I know
He remains, He remains

When religion shuts the door
He remains, He remains

When I can't pray anymore
He remains, He remains

When I've lost all that I know
He remains, He remains

When kingdoms come and go
He remains, He remains

When my faith is at a loss
He remains, He remains

When we nailed him to a cross
He remains, He remains
